

YOUR MISSION IS TO PROTECT. OURS IS TO SERVE.

At Royal Caribbean International® we appreciate the personal sacrifices that our military men and women make. We'd like to offer these brave soldiers the freedom to reconnect with family on a magnificent Mexico cruise with special prices for active and retired military personnel and their families.

Mariner of the Seas®

7-Night Mexican Riviera

Departing from Los Angeles, California

October 1, 2009 through March 28, 2010.

Prices Starting From: $359*

Radiance of the Seas®

4/5-Night Mexican Riviera

Departing from San Diego, California

October 1, 2009 through March 28, 2010.

Prices Starting From: $199*

*Royal Caribbean International® reserves the right to impose a fuel supplement of up to $10 per guest per day on all guests if the price of West Texas Intermediate fuel exceeds $65.00 per barrel.

For a limited time, for the first 1,000 reservations made we'll contribute $10 to Wounded Warriors Family Support which provides aid to families of those who have been wounded, injured or killed during combat operations.

Enjoy quality time with your family while giving back to families in need. This promotion won't last long, so reserve your Mexico cruise today.

For reservations and information, contact:

*At least one qualified guest per stateroom. • To qualify for a military rate, an individual must be classified as one of the following: 1. Active personnel currently serving in the Canadian National Defense; United States Army, Navy, Air Force, Marines, Coast Guard, National Guard or Reserves. Proper identification in the form of a United States Uniformed Services WHITE Identification Card for U.S. military personnel, and a WHITE N.D.21 Identification Card with a Red Canadian Flag displayed for Canadian National Defense personnel, must be presented at time of check-in. 2. Retired from any of the divisions listed directly above. "Retired" is defined as A) enlisted personnel or officers with a minimum of 20 years of service, B) medically retired, or C) 100% disabled. Proper identification for those classified in category A, or B must be in the form of a United States Uniformed BLUE Identification Card. Proper identification for those classified in category C is a United States Uniformed TAN Identification Card. Retired Canadian National Defense personnel are eligible and must possess the same white card as described above for active personnel. All forms of identification must be presented at time of check-in. 3. Veterans with an Honorable Discharge serving a minimum of 2 years, or 6-months in an active war zone, in any of the United States service divisions listed above. Proper identification in the form of a DD 214, plus a current photo must be presented at time of check-in. 4. Spouses of actively deployed, or deceased military personnel, are eligible to book one stateroom as long as the eligible spouse is occupying the stateroom. All other guests traveling in the same stateroom are also eligible for the military rate. Spouse must present the PINK Dependent Military ID upon check-in as proof of eligibility. • Please note, non-compliance of the restricted price program terms will result in the reservation being re-priced to the lowest available fare for that particular day. Price difference will have to be paid immediately or boarding rights will be denied. • All guests traveling in the same stateroom are eligible to receive the military rate. No additional staterooms, other than the one that is occupied by the military person is eligible for the military rate. Parents, in-laws, children or other family members or friends are not eligible for the military rate without the eligible military personnel occupying the stateroom. Prices are per person, cruise only, based on double occupancy and in U.S. dollars. All itineraries and prices are subject to change without notice. Certain restrictions apply. Government taxes and fees are additional. ©2009 Royal Caribbean Cruises Ltd Ships registry: The Bahamas. 09016044c • 09/23/2009